Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference: Resume Review

TC TWIN CITIES DIVERSITY IN PRACTICE DIP

Ready to make a great impression with your resume?

TCDIP's Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference is an opportunity for 2L and 3L students of color from throughout the country to interview with legal employers throughout the Twin Cities. Want to know what working attorneys and recruiting professionals look for in a resume? Interested in feedback tailored for your resume? This year we're inviting law students to participate in our MMRC Resume Review Program.

Law students who participate will register through our website and be matched attorneys and legal recruiting professionals. During the registration process students will submit their resumes. After TCDIP connects participants, students and can work with their their reviewer to gain feedback - over email, through a zoom meeting, or whichever format works for both student and reviewer!

Important Dates

October 19 – November 13: Reviewers sign up to volunteer for resume review
November 2 : Student registration opens
November 2 – November 13: Students sign up and upload resumes
November 13: TCDIP matches students and volunteers
November 13-20: Volunteers provide feedback
November 23: Student bidding begins

Ready to sign up?

Visit https://tcdip.memberclicks.net/2020-mmrc-resume-review