

No. 700/18

14th December 2018

To : All Branches

Dear Colleagues,

ONLINE REGISTRATION - CWU YOUNG WORKERS CONFERENCE AND CWU EQUALITY CONFERENCES 2019

Further to LTB's 621/18 and 658/18 regarding the Young Workers Conference and 683/18 regarding the Equality Conferences please be advised that the online registration has now been opened. Details of the venues where the conferences are taking place are contained within the LTB's listed above.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| • Young Workers Conference | Tuesday 22nd January 2019 |
| • Black Workers Conference | Wednesday 23rd January 2019 |
| • Disability Conference | Thursday 24th January 2019 |
| • Women's Conference | Wednesday 6th February 2019 |
| • LGBT Conference | Thursday 7th February 2019 |

The number of delegates a branch is entitled to send to the Young Workers Conference are decided using the formula contained within LTB 683/18. There are no restrictions on the number of observers allowed to attend.

For each of the Equality Conferences, branches are entitled to send two delegates and there are no restrictions on the number of observers that can attend.

Branch Secretaries are asked to register ALL delegates and observers that are attending the conferences using the CWU online registration process. It would be helpful if individuals did not register themselves but instead speak to their Branch Secretary who will know the process to complete the applications. If you have forgotten the password then please contact Angela Niven on conferences@cwu.org and she will deal with this.

The link to apply for the conferences is as follows:

Any enquiries regarding this LTB should be addressed to Chris Tapper or Angela Niven either by post to head office or by email to eventsregistration@cwu.org

Yours sincerely

Tony Kearns
Senior Deputy General Secretary
