

BLS NOVEMBER JOBS REPORT: NURSING HOMES

Nursing Homes have lost 234,000 employees since start of pandemic

According to the latest Bureau of Labor Statistics report, the nursing home industry has lost 234,000 employees since the start of pandemic and another 8,000 employees in the last month.

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) March 2019 – November 2021

NURSING HOMES WORST IMPACTED INDUSTRY OF HEALTH CARE SECTOR

While hospitals, physicians' offices, outpatient care centers and other health care facilities have reached or surpassed pre-pandemic staffing levels, nursing homes are still experiencing substantial job losses according to the latest November employment data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS).

	Physicians' Offices	Outpatient Care	Home Health	Hospitals	Nursing Homes	Assisted Living*
Mar. 2020	2,699,000	998,000	1,543,000	5,236,000	1,582,000	465,000
Nov. 2021	2,731,000	1,015,300	1,525,700	5,145,900	1,348,100	426,100
Difference #	32K jobs gain	17K jobs gain	17K jobs lost	90K jobs lost	234K jobs lost	39K jobs lost
Difference %	1.2%	1.7%	-1.1%	-1.7%	-14.8%	-8.4%

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) March 2019 – November 2021

*Assisted Living BLS data through October 2020