

REAFFIRMATION OF ACCREDITATION REVIEW FALL 2022

Summary Timeline

2019

Fall: WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC) invites Scripps College (SCR) to participate in the Thematic Pathway for Reaffirmation (TPR), a new, still rigorous but streamlined, theme-based approach to reaffirmation of reaccreditation

2020

Spring – Summer: SCR TPR steering committee forms

Summer – Fall: SCR TPR steering committee drafts TPR proposal

Fall: WSCUC approves SCR TPR proposal with themes drawn from Centennial Strategic Plan:
1) Innovative Learning
Organization and 2) Inclusive
Student Success

2021

Summer: SCR submits external review team chair reccs

Summer – Fall: SCR TPR steering committee starts drafting SCR TPR reaffirmation narrative

Summer – Summer 2022: SCR engages in self-study, tracking and documenting key data points

Fall: SCR TPR steering committee receives training from WSCUC VP liaison Dr. Barbara Gross Davis. Committee starts engaging with and gathering student learning and inclusion feedback from campus stakeholders

2022

Spring: SCR TPR steering committee continues to gather student learning and inclusion feedback from campus stakeholders, incorporating

Fall (September 7): SCR submits final TPR institutional report to WSCUC

Late Fall (November 16-18, 2022): WSCUC external review team visits Scripps and engages with community

2023

Spring (February): Process concludes with WSCUC Commission meeting to review Scripps' reaffirmation visit and sending action letter!