Alumni Spotlight

Athena Hoppe graduated from the bluff back in 2019. After graduation, she took to heart the advice of many medical students: she took the summer off before medical school. She spent time in Chicago, Friday Harbor, along with 2 weeks in London and 3 weeks' road tripping around the USA. It was an excellent summer, but she was excited to get back to work in the fall and is now in her first year of medical school at the newly opened Elson S. Floyd College of Medicine at Washington State University. Learn more about Athena!
