

Joanne Alexander

Executive Vice-President & General Counsel at Encana

Joanne is responsible for the overall legal affairs of Encana and its subsidiaries, and overseeing the company's corporate compliance program.

With over 20 years of legal and business experience within the oil and gas industry, Joanne joined Encana in 2015 as Executive Vice-President & General Counsel. Before starting at Encana, Joanne was the Senior Vice-President, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary with Precision Drilling Corporation.

She has also held senior legal and business roles with several companies in the oil and gas industry, gaining exposure to North America exploration, production, major oil sands development projects, and international exploration activity.

Joanne has held senior positions in the area of law, business development, regulatory affairs and land administration. She began her legal career with a Calgary-based law firm, including a posting to its Moscow office.

Joanne graduated with distinction from the University of Saskatchewan with Bachelor degrees in Law and in Commerce. She is a member of the Bar in Alberta and Colorado.

She is a former Trustee of the Center for American and International Law and a Founding Member of the University of Calgary Law School's Strategic Plan Campaign. She is a past-President and formerly a Director of the Canadian Petroleum Law Foundation. In 2014, Joanne was recognized as one of the Women's Executive Network's Top 100 Most Powerful Women in Canada.