•INTREST QUESTION•

Spiral was a collective of African-American artists initially formed by Romare Bearden, Charles Alston, Norman Lewis, and Hale Woodruff. They organized their first and only group show in 1965 and would dissolve shortly after. The Spiral Group made it their goal to examine their attitudes and individual commitments as Negro artists in the struggle for Civil Rights. The Spiral Group met on a weekly basis in Romare Bearden's studio to discuss how their art might relate to current political goals and explore aesthetics that transcended categories of politics, beauty and race.

Via attached PDF Document please share a reflection on your journey as an artist and answer the following questions: How you have been inspired? What inspires your artistic visions to be transcendent? How would you benefit from creative skill and entrepreneurial development provided through this program?
