

FEDERATION UKRAINE RESPONSE

As of March 31, 2022

The Jewish Federations®
OF NORTH AMERICA

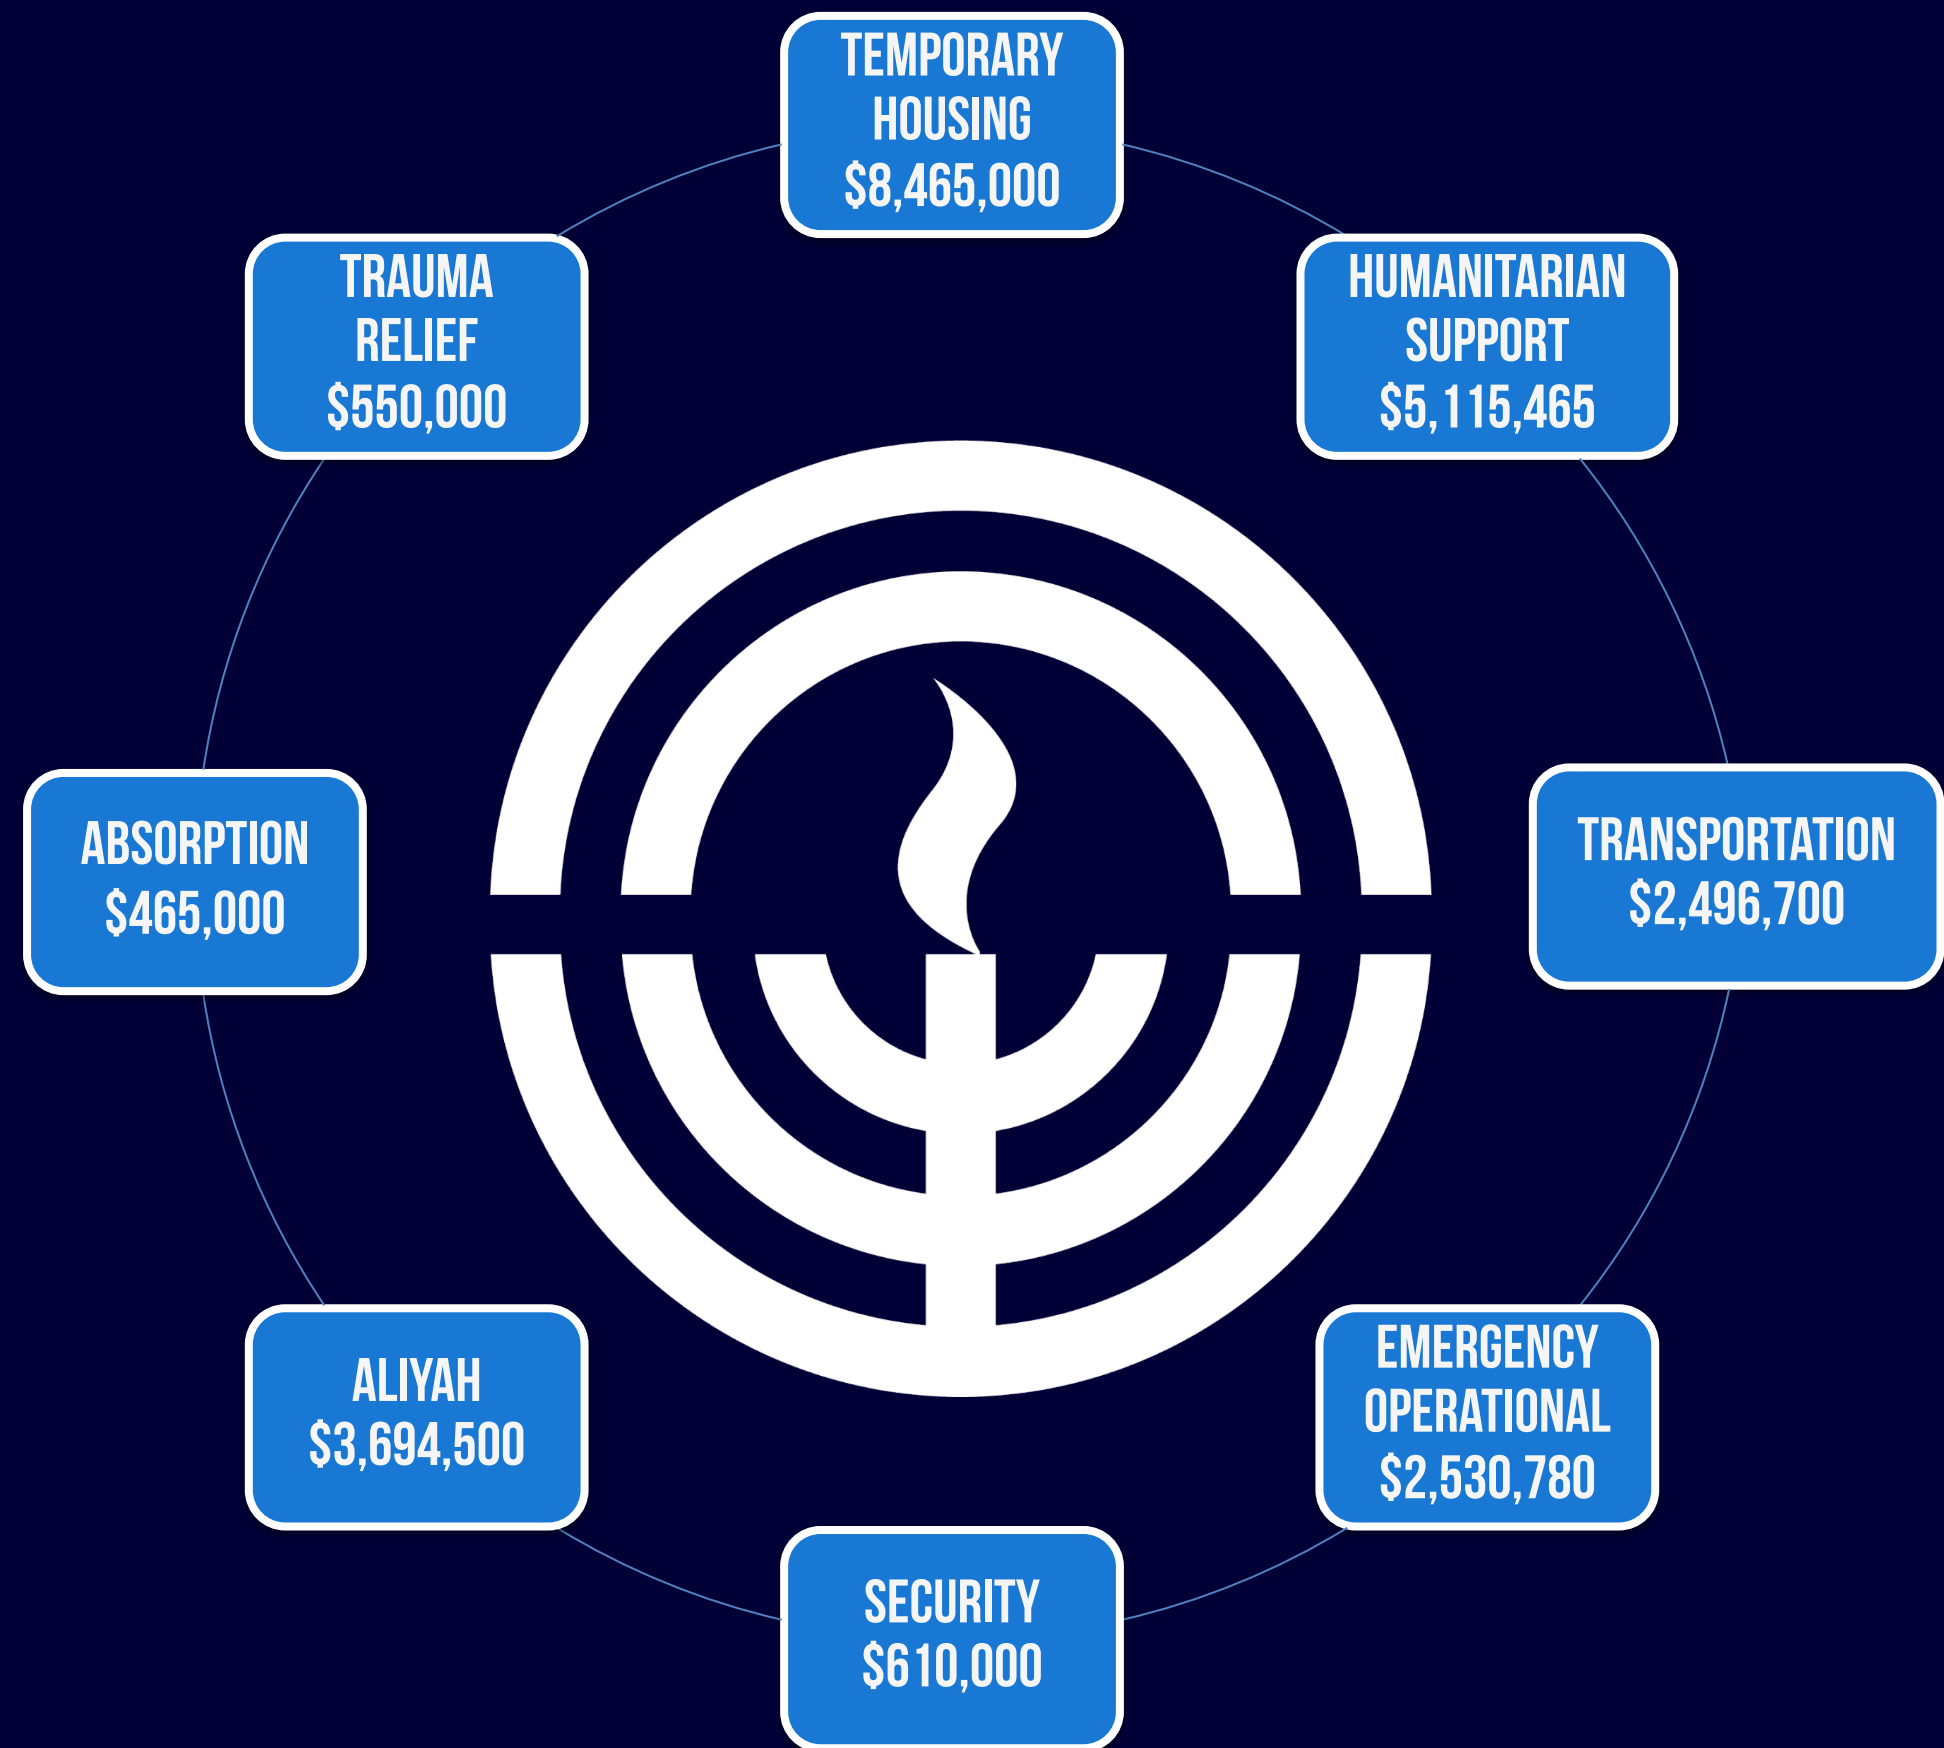

BUILDING FLOURISHING COMMUNITIES, TOGETHER

OPERATING PRINCIPLES

- Request for needs have been submitted by our overseas partners and other organizations operating in Ukraine
- All requests are vetted and reviewed to ensure that the amounts requested are reasonable and justified and that to the best of the organization's they are not duplicative of what other organizations are doing. Direct operational costs are included; overhead is not.
- Volatile situation = maximum flexibility with critical needs addressed
- Full transparency on what is spent and what can be re-allocated
- Full transparency of other funding sources so that Federation's contribution is on the "net" amount of what has been requested.

CURRENT COLLECTIVE ALLOCATIONS

ABOUT THE WORK

The Jewish Agency for Israel: The Jewish Agency is providing Ukrainian Jews with food, supplies, transport and shelter to facilitate their safe passage by land out of Ukraine. It is enabling the rapid approval of Aliyah for those who choose to move to Israel and provides temporary housing until they receive approvals, at which point they are flown to Israel. The Jewish Agency hotline has received more than 40,000 calls from Jews in the region and their family in Israel. The Jewish Agency is also helping increase security for dozens of local Jewish organizations in Ukraine.

The American Joint Distribution Committee (JDC): JDC's Hesed system continues to support 21,000 elderly Jews and other members of the community by providing food, medicines, social support. JDC is arranging transport to safe locations, is deployed to welcome Jewish refugees at numerous border crossings and is housing and providing material and social support for thousands of displaced Jews within Ukraine and the neighboring countries. JDC is also supporting local Jewish organizations in Ukraine and ensuring that they can continue to serve the Jewish community in their hour of need. In addition, JDC is providing technical support to the Ukrainian health system.

World ORT: World ORT is supporting the staff, students and families of its six Ukrainian schools who have remained in Ukraine, providing cash, food and medicines for those sheltering in place. ORT is also assisting refugees through ORT schools in surrounding countries.

ABOUT THE WORK

Chabad: Through the Federation of Jewish Communities of the CIS, the extensive Chabad network is providing food, medicines and safe shelter to Ukrainian Jews who are sheltering in place. Chabad is also facilitating the safe passage of those who choose to leave their homes and arranging housing for them upon arrival in the neighboring countries.

Emergency Volunteer Project: will be using its fleet of mobile kitchens to deliver hot meals to Ukrainian refugees who are being hosted by Israeli families. Meals are prepared and delivered by Israeli and American volunteers.

Federation Professional Volunteer Initiative: JFNA is identifying and recruiting skilled Russian-Speaking Jewish professionals who are willing to volunteer in the countries neighboring Ukraine to assist the refugee assistance work of our partners

Hadassah Medical Organization (HMO): HMO is providing medical equipment to the Ukraine health system. It has also provided training and medical delegations to the Medical University of Lublin in dealing with mass casualties and trauma.

Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society (HIAS): HIAS is working through its partner organization in Ukraine, Right to Protect with a focus on serving the most vulnerable Ukrainian refugees, especially women, girls, the elderly and families. It is providing training and technical support; and cash assistance for accommodation, transportation and the purchase of basic needs.

ABOUT THE WORK

Hillel International: Hillel International is hosting and providing support to Ukrainian Hillel students and other Jewish refugees in the Hillel Centers in the surrounding countries.

The Israel Trauma Coalition (ITC): ITC is using its extensive global experience to train Jewish and non-Jewish personnel in Ukraine and the surrounding countries on how to assist those affected by the conflict, many of whom are suffering from severe psychological trauma. ITC is also providing direct care to Ukrainian olim and the families of Ukrainians living in Israel.

JCC Krakow is helping thousands of Ukrainian refugees. The JCC is housing refugees; providing day care; collecting and distributing humanitarian supplies and medicines in Poland and Ukraine; helping evacuate refugees and arranging transport onwards; and facilitating psychological support.

Nefesh B’Nefesh: In partnership with the Israel Defense Forces (IDF), Nefesh B’Nefesh is providing tailored support to Ukrainian lone soldiers serving in the IDF and [GR3] supporting the families of Ukrainian lone soldiers who make Aliyah.
