

THE JOE LOUIS GREENWAY is a pathway that will unify Detroit's neighborhoods, people and parks.

During these engagement sessions, we will be sharing how the input from Detroit's residents has helped shape the greenway plan.

The Joe Louis Greenway is a project managed by the City of Detroit's General Services Department and funded by the Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Foundation.

WHY NAME THE GREENWAY AFTER JOE LOUIS?

Joe Louis possessed a profound spirit of determination and strength in the face of tremendous adversity. He worked tirelessly to advocate for the rights of African Americans and the advancement of equity and social justice in the United States.

As a cultural icon, Joe Louis represents power, equity and racial unity. We will strive to create this greenway in his honor.

THE GREENWAY VISION

Once complete, the Joe Louis Greenway will provide a fun, safe and inspiring space for people of all abilities to walk, bike, run, and connect. It will encourage economic growth that celebrates local business owners and residents. The Joe Louis Greenway is an opportunity to bridge divides, strengthen our neighborhoods, empower Detroiters, and provide beautiful, restorative spaces for all.
