About the Prep Program

The Ron Brown Prep Program furthers the Ron Brown Center's mission of increasing diversity in the legal profession; and educating students to be leaders on issues of racial, economic and social justice. To help raise the number of diverse, disadvantaged students in law schools the Ron Brown Prep Program identifies college students and graduates, and offers them meaningful assistance and early exposure to the study and practice of law and other important resources.

Over 300 past Ron Brown Prep Program participants have been accepted to more than 50 top law schools, including:

- Harvard
- Yale
- Boston College
- Columbia
- Cornell
- Fordham
- Emory
- Georgetown
- Howard
- NYU
- St. John's
- UC Berkeley
- UCLA
- U of Michigan
- Vanderbilt
